- The funniest scandal of the season, a fine old how d'ye do, comes from South Memphis. A few nights since a gentleman whose military experi-ence gained him courage and a title, left his wife's bedroom to lay for a burglar. He remarked that he intended to eatch him if it took all summer and begged her not to be dis-turbed if he should be absent for any length of time. Shortly after he stole out, pistol in hand, she concluded it would be wise to warn a young lady guest not to be alarmed if she heard a shot, and, gliding noiselessly to the door of her room, opened it. The young lady departed for home very early the next morning.

Armonr & Co have closed the canning branch of their business in Chicago until Texas grass cattle begin to come. Lately they have slaughtered 200 to 3 0 cattle daily for causing purposes, but, as stated, will remain closed for at least one month. The reasons assigned are that they have on hand more than enough cannel goods to fill all present orders and at the present high-prices for canning cattle and the price for goods, there is no money in making contracts for the near fature.

AMUSEMENTS.

Baker and Farron,

The Soap Bubble was presented by the Baker and Farron company to a fair audience, who were quite liberal with their laughter and applause, me e so, perhaps, than the mexits of the piece deserve. The company pos-sesses a reasonable amount of talent Division of telegrams and reports for banefit of commerce and agricultant vantage in a batter play, if the term play can be justly applied to such a jambles of disconnected nonsense, the name of the author is omitted form the bill, doubtless for the reason that no sane man is willing to father it. The singing of Meears. Baker, Farrov. Rich and Mack is one of the redeeming features of the performance, the latter two gentlen an baving noticeably good voices. To the lovers of a knock-down and drag out kind of a farce, interspersed bere and there with variety business of a fair quality, the Soap Bubble will doubtless prove attractive.
